Screw the person that said "What don't kill you will make you stronger" and you can tell them that Samoine Ross said it. I believe "What don't kill you, will give you a dam good story to tell" and that's what I'm going to do. Tell you my story. I was raised in the South by my grandma but birthed by my selfish gold digging momma Me-Me, who moved me to Compton with her and her husband Al. It was hard adjusting to a whole new life in Cali until my Stepdad took me under his wings and taught me the game. Everything was good for a while but when a tragedy occurred, my life headed downhill fast and before it was all over, betrayal, drama and heartache wasn't the only thing I was faced with. Now, some of you who read my story will like it and some of you wont but I really don't give a dam. I'm allowing you in my business for one reason only and that's to let you see how I learned the hard way that "The Game Don't Love Nobody"
