The Holy Qur'an: The English Translation

The holy book of Islam, The Qur'an, is the written transcription of the revelations the Prophet Muhammad received from the angel Gabriel during the years 610 to 632 CE. It is believed by Muslims to be the literal word of God. Originally written down, some believe, by the companions of Muhammad before his death in 632, The Qur'an first appeared in classical Arabic. Its 114 surahs (chapters) form the basis of Islamic faith and prayer and embody the essence of the Muslim way of worship and life. This popular English translation is by the respected Muslim scholar Abdullah Yusuf Ali and was originally published in 1934.
