Chess Openings 1 Stephen A. Schneider

Chess Openings 1 is for anyone who knows the basics of chess and would like to learn more about chess strategies. Every game starts with an opening plan. Chess Openings 1 begins with openings most popular with scholastic players — how to play them, how to stop them. Challenging puzzles and instructional games demonstrate opening strategies for three main openings (The Queen's Raid; Two Knights Defense; The Stonewall) plus popular variations. Students use these strategies in their own games and record their moves in the algebraic system of chess notation. Chess Openings 1 is a great first openings book for children of all ages!
