The book explains the young readers about different methods of treatments, once they are admitted to a hospital. With a medical clown present, and a devoted medical team, written with humor, all seems to be much easier to endure.

Ayana Friedman's sculpture, video art and installations have appeared in numerous exhibitions throughout Israel, Europe and the United States. Many of her pieces appear in museums and private collections in these countries. She has written and lectured extensively about art for Israeli art journals and newspapers. Ayana Friedman is an "Artist Grant Recipient", and a writer of children's books.
