Part One

Amanda Gibson dedicates every minute of every day to working on a story--a story that will define her entire career as a journalist. When a misunderstanding sends her to the office of William Townsend, the billionaire owner of one of the biggest clothing brands in the country, she can't fight the passion that invades her otherwise organized life.

William can't resist the young woman who walks into his office, but when you're keeping secrets, the last thing you should do is date a journalist.

Amanda wants William and everything he has to offer, but she is also investigating his brother for a story involving bribery and corruption at the highest levels of American government.

Amanda doesn't want to give up on her investigation or her man, but one of them will have to go. Will Amanda put her career first or will she let love into her life for the first time?

Part Two

Amanda Gibson's life changed forever when she met William Townsend. Her every waking minute had been consumed by a story that would define her career as a journalist; then William showed up.

Despite her initial doubts, William earned her trust and Amanda put her faith in him completely. She knew he had secrets, but nothing could have prepared her for the shocking conversation she overheard which destroyed everything she had taken for granted.

Amanda wants to understand what is going on, but more than anything she wants to believe her trust in William was not misplaced.

Every answer throws up more questions until Amanda's life is turned upside down once more. This time there may be no way back.

Part Three

Amanda Gibson and William Townsend were not supposed to fall for each other. William is not the relationship type and Amanda suspects he is involved in something illegal. Illegal and dangerous.

Just when Amanda thinks she can trust him, she catches William in the act. He's not just bribing a senator-- he's doing it for the woman he loves. A woman who is not Amanda.

Amanda is trying to put her life back together but to do that she has to confront William one more time. Can she look past the other woman? Or will Amanda and William be forever kept apart by William's secret?
