The Lady's Confession (MacDonald / Phillips series) George MacDonald

A companion volume to The Curate's Awakening (though both stories are complete in themselves), this is the story of Lady Juliet, now living in the same town as the Curate, Thomas Wingfold. The town doctor, Paul Faber, considers himself an atheist. But he is charming and likeable, and he seems to have his life in order without God. Juliet and Paul fall in love and seem to be destined for a life of happiness and service to others. But then Paul discovers a secret from her past he cannot accept.
