What waits Beneath?

Pat O'Toole has always idolized his older brother, Coop. He's even helped Coop with some of his crazier plans -- such as risking his life to help his big brother dig a tunnel underneath their neighborhood in the suburbs of Washington, DC. Coop is . . . different. He doesn't talk on the phone, doesn't use email, and doesn't have friends. He's never really cared for anything but the thrill of being underground and Pat. So it's no surprise to anyone -- even Pat -- that after a huge fight with their parents, Coop runs away. Exactly one year later, Pat receives a package containing a digital voice recorder and a cryptic message from his brother. He follows the clues to New York City, and soon discovers that Coop has joined the Community, a self-sufficient society living beneath the streets. Now it's up to Pat to find his brother -- and bring him home.

As a college student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Beneath can make you feel more interested to read.
