A Complete Story With NO CLIFFHANGER**

Shanice was a strong and proud 30 something with the world at her fingertips. While she owned a successful online business, her husband was also a very wealthy real estate broker who never lost that passion for her. Even after two years of marriage, it was almost like they forgot to leave the honeymoon phase.

Patrick loved his wife more than anything in this world, but when she gets into a terrible car accident and loses her memories, his life goes into a tailspin. While he tries to help her regain her memories, their situation is further complicated as they realize she is also pregnant. With nothing working Patrick questions whether his wife really ever loved him, and Shanice is scared that she's carrying a stranger's baby.

But when Patrick's conniving brother enters the picture and sees a chance to take advantage of a weakened Shanice, the story takes a new turn.

This starts a long road to recovery for both Shanice and Patrick as they fight rivals, forge new relationships, care for their newborn and learn how to love each other all over again.
