Djinn Justice (The Collegium Book 2) Jenny Schwartz

From the cold of Siberia to the Mountains of the Moon, Fay and Steve are involved in an epic battle against evil enslaving people's souls. If a person's dream essence is stolen, so is their future.

Fay Olwen is still adjusting to life as one of a couple. She never expected to have a sexy leopard-were cuddling her at midnight in his huge bed in his gorgeous villa on the Mediterranean island of Cyprus. But here she is, in love and in luck—finally! There's not a demon in sight.

Pity she can't say the same about the invading djinn.

As romantic plans are scuttled, Fay discovers she has a lot to learn about her new lover. Steve Jekyll isn't simply the lethal mercenary she thought him. He's also heir to the Suzerainty, the ancient order that delivers justice for all weres.

Steve hoped he'd have more time to reveal the many aspects of his complicated life to Fay; not least, his family. But with a rogue mage teaming up with a power-mad jackal-were to enslave innocent people, Steve hasn't got time for tact. His family are just going to have to deal with the fact that his chosen mate isn't a were. She is, in fact, their total and feared opposite: a mage.

Let the adventure begin!

*** "Djinn Justice" is for fans of paranormal romance who like their adventures filled with humor and heart. It can easily be read as a stand-alone novel, although the novella "Demon Hunter" tells the story of how Fay and Steve got together.
