What Lurks in the Dark: What Lurks in the Dark J. L. Drake

He was a hunter, a killer, a psychopath. He was always watching and waiting for the perfect moment to strike. She was his greatest obsession. Pushing through her past, Emily McPhee was finally where she wanted to be. She had pulled straight A's, had a home in Southern California, money, and a great group of friends. One night her stalker decided to make his move and everything changed. Now, fighting to get back to what she once had, Emily must deal with more than just this psychopath, but also with her self-involved mother and her one true love that's pulling away. How hard would you fight the darkness that's threatening to take over your life? Goose bumps raced over me as I desperately felt around the edges of the door, clawing at the wood next to it, trying to find a way out. I heard a sound and found a set of eyes staring back at me from a Judas hole. – From What Lurks in the Dark
