Large format for easy reading. Woodhull was an American feminist, reformer, stockbroker, sex symbol, spiritualist and advocate of free love. She was the first woman to run for president. Her view that women should be free to marry and take lovers based on conscience, not compulsion, set her at odds with other 19th century feminists. And the Truth shall make you Free, which began as a speech, is a defense of her advocacy of free love and the principles of social freedom.
