It was the Curse's fault. There was no other explanation why Alice Young woke up married to a complete stranger after an accidental Vegas wedding.

After generations of witches in her family succumbing to the Legend of the Lonely Witch, aka the Curse, Alice refuses to surrender her magic to the land. And that's exactly what will happen if she doesn't find true love. Stupid cliché hex anyway.

Reese Mahoney doesn't understand what he's doing in Nevada. He should be on his way back to Wyoming. Back to the land he loves. But one night in Vegas changed everything. Now he's torn between his dream of owning his own ranch and doing what's right. Only problem is that his dreams are changing and he's determined to help the woman he can legally call his wife be happy. Except, it's a little hard when she turns down every attempt he makes.
