A Tale Of Taboo Romance That Will Wrench Your Heart And Incite Your Senses.

Every evening, without fail, Oliver would always visit her stepsister Claire at her dormitory. He'd throw pebbles at her window, and she'd take a peek. They would talk about the memories of their youth, the details of their days, and the promises of their dreams.

One day, when Claire suffered the worst heartbreak of her young life - all because she wanted to preserve her innocence for the right one come the right time - which was made so much worse by a very public Facebook post that revealed the reason for the breakup, she felt the severe weight of despair and humiliation crush her very young soul.

She found herself in an unfamiliar territory... helpless, vulnerable, without protection.

But Oliver, as always, was there to make things right, and Claire started to realize that she may be feeling something towards the boy she grew up with... something that's more than mere brotherly love.

What happens next is a series of events that will compel them to make the most difficult of choices: whether to hold on to the boundaries of their kinship, or allow their desires to unravel until they embrace the forbidden.

Will the ties that bind them suppress the yearnings of their hearts, or will love prove that, indeed, there is a first time for everything?

WARNING: this is not a tale for young folks. This is meant for 18+ readers only. This book contains highly explicit scenes of sexual acts, very controversial subject matters, and compromising adult situations. Reader discretion is strongly advised.
